

Drywall Finisher

Provider: IUPAT, Local 1959

Website

http://local1959.org/?page_id=6

Places: Anchorage

Drywall consists of a thin layer of gypsum between two layers of heavy paper. It is used on walls and ceilings in most buildings today because it is faster to apply than plaster and gives a professional finish when completed.

Related Occupations

Department of Labor and Workforce Development, Research and Analysis Section
P.O. Box 115501
Juneau, Alaska 99811-5501
Phone: 907.465.4500, Fax: 907.523.9654
December 30, 2015